

THE DAILY CRITIC

CITY SPECIALS.

$80,000 Worth of New and Elegant Furniture.
Our stock of Festive furniture was never so complete in every department as it is at present. We have added greatly to this line of goods, and we do not sell direct from the manufacturer, as we have done, and thereby saving the profits of the middleman. Our furniture is now 15 percent., or which we propose to give our customers the advantage. For the most part, our furniture is made of the best materials at prices that have never before been reached in this city.

Columbus Tent, No. 1, had a very good attendance on Monday evening. The first degree was conferred on four candidates. Mr. J. J. Jett was elected correspondent for the tent, and good-of-the-order remarks made by nearly all present.

Albion Tent, No. 154, had an interesting session Tuesday evening. One candidate was initiated.

Anastasia Tent, No. 185, had plenty of jolly solo songs, etc., Tuesday evening.

National Tent, No. 8 (ladies), had a nice meeting last evening, and personal arrangements for a social next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Wm. E. Cordell and wife left for Tennessee to day. Mr. Cordell will return next week and his wife seven weeks later.

High Deputy Ruler W. H. Barclay organized another primary tent in Albany Tuesday evening.

Past High Ruler F. J. Eller, who was the prime mover in establishing Columbus Tent, No. 1, has a charter nearly full of signatures for another tent.

Grand Deputy Ruler G. W. Shoemaker has a new tent under way in Tarrytown.

Report Grand Chief Ruler E. W. Rykewell concerning the new tent on Tenth street to night.

High Secretary John R. Mahoney is receiving a large mail from all sections, and notwithstanding the mutterings of the expelled "gang," he predicts a grand year of work still along the line.

He says: "Georgia Tent, No. 151, already has a committee at work making arrangements for the High Tent session.

He adds: "We have the largest High Tent session since this year will mark my word, the High Tent books will show that the order has doubled in membership also."

High Chief Ruler F. E. DeYoey reports that new tents are being organized in all sections, and that the order is in a much better condition than at any time during the past five years. He says: "Of course, we are not yet acquainted with the facts may be gathered by the very plausible stories circulated by the 'creoles' who have been turned out of the order, but still our cause is marching on, and the order is becoming more firmly established than ever before."

High Chief Ruler F. E. DeYoey has issued an order calling on all tents in North America to drap their charters for Past High Chief Ruler George A. Thompson for the period of six days.

Grand Chief Ruler F. A. Alkins of New York Grand Tent says: "The order is booming in New York State without precedent. We send Washington its best greetings."

He adds: "Past Grand Chief Ruler Ira N. Stillwell says: 'The order in New York is in better condition than for our own Grand Tent session at 2 o'clock from the West Georgetown Methodist Church, and the interment will be made at Oak Hill. All the services of which he was a member will attend in full regalia."

THE CHRISTIAN GOSPEL.

The Right Rev. Dr. A. F. Hewitt, C. S. P., gave the second of his lectures yesterday afternoon at the Catholic University upon the subject "Christian Gospels." He said that God has by his incarnation and the means of grace flowing from it, which constitute the supernatural order, made it possible for man to attain to a mystical union with God, in which he will have a direct and intuitive knowledge of the Divinity. In this world we have but an intimation of God, but only dimly the truths concerning God and the knowledge of his creation, but in the beatific vision of God the true and perfect goals will be attained.

BORN HERE NINETEEN YEARS.

It should have read "Nineteen," but the good reader observed that it amounted to just one year less, and so did not dare to point out the error. The author, however, believes there was considerable truth in his observation. Innumerable instances of longevity of life are to be found in the histories of the world.

He adds: "I am now 19 years old."
